Welcome Kelsey!

We welcome Kelsey Woodruff who will be serving as our new Interim Children's Ministry Coordinator. Kelsey brings enthusiasm, a passion for ministry and a desire to grow in her experience serving children and families.

In addition to supporting our Children's Ministry needs, we are excited about incorporating Kelsey's remaining internship requirements as she continues her journey through Seminary. This will provide opportunities for Kelsey to gain valuable hands-on ministry experience. We see this as a wonderful opportunity for both Kelsey and King of Kings, allowing us to support her development while benefiting from her gifts and enthusiasm.

Kelsey's first day at King of Kings will be Monday, November 16th.

Your ongoing gifts have made this ministry opportunity possible as we seek to empower future generations of church leaders.

A Season of Giving and Gratitude

November brings several meaningful opportunities to practice generosity, and your gifts can make a difference in the life of the church!

Give to the Max Day, is a chance to support churches and other nonprofit organizations, while those age 73 and older may also consider directing their Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) to a charitable organization. Of course, as Thanksgiving approaches, we are reminded of the many blessings we receive and the joy that comes from giving and sharing those blessings.

During this season, we invite you to prayerfully consider how a gift to your church home can help support vital ministries, programs and outreach opportunities that mean so much to each of us.

It's more than giving to a budget, it's reflected in students and adults growing in their faith, people gathering for a meal and sharing a sense of community and a space where we can bring our burdens and celebrate our joys together.
