Spiritual Practices

The Spiritual Practice of Sacred Listening

1. Find a quiet place where you won't be disturbed.
2. Read Luke 10:38-42 slowly and deliberately, not with an intellectual or utilitarian perspective but in a relational and transformational way.
3. Allow the Holy Spirit to guide your heart and mind to become aware of the presence of God.
4. As you read, notice where the text seems to draw you in or speaks to you. Is there a correction or invitation to you?
5. Thank God for the opportunity to spend time in the best way possible, learning from Jesus.

Faithful Generosity: Even when you're away

As the days grow longer and warmer, many of us find our weekends filled with travel, family gatherings, and well-earned rest. While your plans may take you away from in-person worship, we want to gently remind you that your faithful giving remains a vital part of the life and ministry of our church. Your consistent generosity sustains the work we do together—whether it's worship, outreach, care for those in need, or maintaining the sacred space we call home. Even when you can't be here physically, your gifts help ensure the church remains strong, welcoming, and ready to serve. If you're not already giving online, consider setting up a recurring gift. It's a simple way to stay connected and make a difference, no matter where your summer takes you.

Thank you for your faithfulness. We are grateful for all the ways you give—your time, your prayers, and your generosity.

At our 9:30am service be inspired as our choir and ensembles lead us in a beautiful time of worship. Let the music fill your heart and soul as we come together to give thanks and praise. As part of worship that weekend, we will be dedicating a portrait of King of King's founding pastor, Pastor Ralph Olsen Jr. This is a meaningful moment to gather as a community and reflect on Pastor Ralph's incredible vision and lasting legacy.
